

PUBLIC and PRIVATE GARDENS

Hal Ramaley Memorial Park (Oak Harbor)
Community Park with picnic site (no phone)
SE Bayshore Dr. between City Beach Rd and Dock Rd., Oak Harbor WA 98277
adopted by Oak Harbor Garden Club
May 2007 Blue Star By-Way Marker installed

Fragrance Garden at Hovander Homestead Park
360-384-3444
5299 Neilson Rd, Ferndale WA 98248 Exit 262 from I-5,
turn left, follow signs
Raised beds, Braille titles, wheelchair accessible.

Big Rock Garden Open dawn to dusk (no phone) 2900 Sylvan St., Bellingham, WA 98226
http://www.cob.org/parks/parks_trails/bigrock.htm
The 2.7-acre garden is part of a 9.2-acre woodland overlooking Lake Whatcom. The garden is packed with an eclectic group of sculptures as well as native and exotic plants, trees and shrubs. A paved parking area provides access to the garden; inside the garden's fences, visitors will find a packed gravel path to direct them to the various sculptures, plants and landscaping marvels. Big Rock Garden also has restrooms, a greenhouse and tool building.

Butterfly Garden For information or directions, contact Joyce 360-424-3339
Civic Club Hall, 622 S. 2nd, LaConner WA 98257
Dedicated by LaConner Garden Club, June 26, 2004.

Centennial Park Lynden, WA
Corner of 4th & Grover. Includes landscaping by Lynden Garden Club through PETALS grant. July 2007 Blue Star By-Way Marker to be installed

Discovery Garden Foundation WSU Extension Office
360.428.4270
16650 SR 536, Mt. Vernon WA 98273
http://mtvernon.wsu.edu/frt_hort/display_garden.htm
Visit 4 gardens. Fruit and nut trees, rose society, native plants, composting area and more!
Located on Memorial Hwy. adjacent to the WSU Agricultural Research Center, Mount Vernon, WA.
Julie Powell,
Master Gardener, is in charge of the garden. Reservations for group tours or groups using the garden facilities are a must. Please email Julie Powell: Lyonhartcorp@earthlink.net

Echo Glen Garden— 4390 Road, just off Mt. Baker Hwy. Bellingham; Dick Bosch, creator & owner; Open M-Sat. thru October; admission. Check newspaper article:
<http://www.bellinghamherald.com/131/story/143683.html>